Kevin didn't communicate well and didn't fulfill visitation even though he was free later

- a) This day Kevin was scheduled for visitation. He never came to get Madeline. I had already left town and went about my day.
- b) Around 2:26 pm Kevin texted me that he just got done teaching but has rehearsal until 4.
- c) Later, I asked Kevin what was up, and Kevin never communicated about visitation, but simply stated he was having a fire in his back yard over text.
- d) I kept her with me that evening.

Sunday

Kevin slept in until noon and didn't follow through with his plans to pick up Madeline for visitation at the scheduled time. He claimed he slept on the music suite floor and sounded intoxicated.

- a) Kevin was supposed to pick Madeline up at 10 am for visitation but didn't show up.
- b) This caused Madeline and I to go out of our ways to be ready. Madeline was waiting outside with all her toys and a picture she made for Kevin for about 2 hours.
- c) I called to see if he was coming or not since he was wasting our time. Kevin claimed he was sleeping when I called him which was about 12 pm. He claims he was out late the night before and fell asleep on the music suite floor.
- d) It sounded to me like he was on drugs or out late partying. You could barely understand him; His voice was so raspy.
- e) He yelled at me for no reason and told me he wanted to see Madeline. I told him she'd been waiting for 2 hours for him.
- f) When he showed up he was aggressive and hostile. I suggested me keeping Madeline so he could rest but Kevin declined.
- g) I fear for Madeline's wellbeing when she is with him. I think his ability to care for her is compromised.

Monday

Kevin lied about his plan. He intended to leave Madeline with someone else for his visitation time and also failed to follow through with his plans to pick up Madeline for his requested visitation.

- a) Kevin had made plans to have Madeline a few hours this day from approximately 12 – 5 pm.
- b) He didn't come to pick up Madeline.
- c) When I asked him why he changed plans, he stated he was busy with a gig at Mort's pub from about 2 – 4pm.
- d) It seems he was going to let Madeline go parentless again.
- e) Nobody else besides him and I have legal rights to Madeline.
- f) We agreed for him to see her some other time.

Thursday

Kevin not letting Madeline use the restroom frequently enough, neglecting to care

Kevin had Madeline for 7.5 hours today, fulfilling visitation from 8 am – 3:30 pm. Kevin had work around 4 pm and going later into the evening. He is also self-employed and created his own schedule on visitation days, etc.

At 3:30 pm, I met Kevin at music suite 408 to get Madeline. She was with him only 7.5 hours this day, Kevin told me she only went to the bathroom once, all day (almost 8 hours) That is too long to hold urine for most adults, none the less a 3-year-old potty training girl. I have told Kevin many times, she needs to go more than that and what times in particular to offer her a chance to use the restroom as she is not yet independent and relies on caregivers to help and encourage her to use the restroom.

It's common for Madeline to use the restroom 1 -2 times, every 1 – 2 hours when she is with me. The average expected for a toddler to use the restroom, 1-2 times, every hour or so, (not 1 time in 7.5 hrs.) I reminded Kevin again after he told me of this, and also told him that if she holds it that long she can get an infection. I told him its abnormal for her to hold it that long and that she goes with me about once or twice every hour or two. I offer her far more frequent chances to go than once in 8 hours and any reasonable, suitable caregiver would offer more than once in 8 hours also.

Kevin listen excuses why Madeline didn't use the restroom all but once, he said, she didn't have to go, and that she refused to go. When I explained to him how she needs us to make her try at this point in potty training, and be consistent with times to have her try such as after naps, before car rides, ever hour or so, Kevin expressed that he "Ran out of time" that day to care, for our daughter and allow her times to try to go. It is not that hard, and if he was unable due to being so busy, to care for her, then he shouldn't take her due to it endangering her health and wellbeing since he is running out of time to care for her in 7.5 hours of visitation time. God forbid she was with that man any longer.

1. Madeline might be trying to protect herself from going to the bathroom and risking being touched by her dad when with him.

2. Or Kevin is ignorant and neglectful.

Neither is conducive to Madeline physical health, wellness and best interests. Holding the bladder too long can cause infection and need treatment for. With proper care, this risk could be avoided.

I know how Kevin is, and he usually rushes around careless to other needs and will not allow Madeline opportunities to use the restroom even after hours have passed and before going somewhere. He just makes her hold it. For example, Kevin Maddy and I hiked at starved rock for 3 hours. Madeline drank lots of water too. It was time to leave, and I wanted to let Maddie use the restroom first. Kevin got angry since he just wanted us to leave. Kevin completely ignored Madeline need to use the restroom and If I was not there he probably wouldn't have given her a chance to. He seemed to think she doesn't deserve to go to the restroom like a human being.

Madeline immediately had physical symptoms, she made statements that the father touched her crotch, she became fearful, acted out sexually, touching herself and humping, she became sick, vomiting with fever, and more. None of these existed without the visitation and some of these symptoms were only after being with the father for a 3 – 8 hour span which is far too brief for such intense symptoms to develop was she being cared for or in a sane, stable, and healthy situation while on the visitation.

Wednesday

3rd day past visitation and Madeline is masturbating in public. The visitations negatively affect her behavior.

- a) When Madeline woke up this morning, she began immediately touching her genitals and rubbing her finger back and forth.
- b) She doesn't act this way normally, only after visits with her father. The way she did it seems more than a natural exploration, like a learned behavior.
- c) Later at Walmart, instead of acting how she normally does, Madeline was preoccupied with masturbating and pressing on her crotch with a toy for extended periods of time in the store.

As Madeline continued to exhibit excessive masturbation after the visit with the father, and another court date soon approaching, Julia decided to call Peoria IL pediatric resource center. She told them about her daughter's symptoms and asked to get in touch with a child psychologist to confirm or deny those signs indicating child sexual abuse.

The nurse Julia spoke to at the time, stated she should bring Madeline in immediately to be seen if there are suspicions of sexual abuse. The mom explained the alleged abuse took place months prior, around August, but the nurse said sometimes they can still find signs and to bring Madeline in to the E.R. The mom, trying to be a good mom decided to follow the direction given to her by the nurse and brought Madeline into the hospital. There was a wait and they ended up staying for a decent amount of hours to where the mom began to get sleepy while in the doctor's room. She spoke to several nurses, doctors, and policemen repeating the hard story and her abuse signs again and again. There was allegation made about the mom being out of it, but she was tired and being questioned an unreasonable amount of times.

Julia's dad throws her under the bus while speaking to DCFS as a character witness for Julia who lived with him at the time: While at the hospital DCFS spoke to my father on the phone. My father hardened my situation by telling them he thought I was crazy because I claimed to be allergic to cat litter (this bothered him) and that I clogged the toilets. My dad was hard on me, instead of having compassion and understanding he would get on me for small things and argue with me about my health telling me I didn't have a cat allergy when indeed I did. All because of that pettiness, he told DCFS he was concerned for Madeline's safety with me. I called him after and asked him why he said that he said 1. The cat litter, 2, the toilet, 3 letting maddy teeth on baby carrots. My dad didn't mention how I had Madeline involved with a frequent amount of child enrichment classes, group and one on one and Madeline was off the charts developmentally for her age group due to the Julia's care.

Lyn Ferrell from Douglas school frequently met with Julia, noticed her good mothering, and also heard of the concerns of the father, and the signs of alleged sexual abuse thereafter.

Julia ordered to get a mental evaluation by DCFS: The next day, Julia was directed by DCFS to obtain a mental evaluation at North central in LaSalle IL. Julia complied, went to North central and spoke to Diane Funk, the mental health evaluator. Diane stated Julia was fine mentally, but had obvious concerns of her daughter's safety, with little understanding of her father. She understood Julia had concerns about the father threatening to kill Julia and made remarks about killing the baby, as well as his family harassing her, taking her to court, and possibly sexually abusing the baby. She listed stress as Julia's symptoms and didn't feel Julia was a threat to the child.

Father has visitation, neglects to watch the child, and child fell down a 5-foot hole at his parent's property; Child also at risk of death if she had fallen down a deadly hill lining the same property in close proximity of the main entrance.

Also, if left unsupervised at his parent's property there is significant risk to the child falling down the 60 ft. hill that marks the edge of his parent's yard where the fall took place. If left unsupervised for the same amount of time to fall down the five-foot hole, the child could have wintered and fell to her death down the 60 ft. hill which is steep, covered in sharp broken bricks, unlined with a fence, directly on the other side of the driveway, immediately outside the main entrance, and leads directly into a moderately trafficked street.

At 3:20, I picked up Madeline from Kevin. When I got her home and noticed she had a bump and bruise above her left eye. Todd Barrett, my landlord at the time, witnessed this.

Todd Barrett witness. I asked Kevin about it and he told me when they were not watching her outside his parents, she fell down the basement window well. (a hole leading to a basement window)

The next day. Kevin asked to fulfill visitation in a 1.5 hour span at my house before he went to his boat club show. He played music for Madeline the whole time, and she cried the whole time asking him to stop, and pay attention to her.
